Pastoral Letter ...

Dear Friends

We live in strange times, days of change when what we once thought was solid ground moves under our feet and when once familiar landmarks have all but disappeared. That is certainly true on the political front with all the uncertainty which Brexit has created. Then we also witness the changes which have taken place in society over the past few decades. Those of us who are older sometimes wonder what our parents would make of the world we now live in if they were to come back. Far reaching changes have taken place in the culture of which we are a part - changes in work patterns, in how we spend our leisure time, in the ways we communicate and relate to each other, and in how we behave. And because the church is part of society (though it now plays a much lesser role than it once did) these changes have also impinged on our life together in the church. We're not immune to the trends and changes in the culture around us. Many of them have affected us adversely.

The Psalmist, who with his fellow Jews had been deported from the land of his fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and now lived as an exile in a pagan land, asked, "How are we to sing the song of the Lord in a strange land?" That too is a question we ask in the church today because like the Psalmist we also find ourselves in a strange land.

The question has special point as on Sunday 2nd February we celebrate 90 years of worship, service and witness as a congregation in King's Park. Thanksgiving will be the dominant note as we look back and thank God for the legacy we have received from those who faithfully ministered and served among us over the years. How much many of us owe them.

But there will also be the acknowledgement that the days when we were one of the largest, if not the largest, congregation in the Church of Scotland when three services had to be held on a Sunday to accommodate all who attended, are long since past. We, with all other congregations, now live in different times.

That said, there are certain constants around which the life of a congregation revolves. Worship, the Word of God, prayer and fellowship are the means by which the body of Christ is sustained. The effectiveness of our service and witness as a congregation depends very much on the priority we give to these basic elements of congregational life. They must remain, without apology, at the heart of our life together.

For the rest, we must be open to the leading of the Spirit if the structures and patterns of congregational life are to build up the church and not just reflect what has happened in the past.

In the first place, we require a vision of God's purpose for us as a congregation in the long term and of his strategy for the present—bi-focal spectacles, if you like, which enable us to take in the distant scene as well as the immediate present. Then along with the vision we need faith to believe that the vision is not just a pipe dream but a hope which can be realised. Faith, as the Letter to the Hebrews puts it, “gives substance to our hopes and makes us certain of realities we do not see.” Next, with vision and faith, we need obedience if the vision is to become a reality. Only vision, coupled with faith and obedience, can deliver the church from the repetitive round of activities year in and year out which ultimately lead to stagnation.

The Book of Proverbs tells us that “where there is no vision the people perish”. As we celebrate our 90th anniversary and look forward to a new chapter in the story of our congregation, may God give us a vision of the future he plans for us, faith to believe that the vision can be realised, and the obedience which will translate the vision into reality - and all to the end that we might sing the song of the Lord in a strange land.

With all good wishes,
David, Locum Minister

Thanks are due to my many friends in King's Park for my 90th birthday cards and the beautiful flowers from the Church delivered by Raymond who is my constant visitor. Fancy having my 90th birthday on the 90th anniversary of the Church - I think I have nearly 60 years of privileged membership! Here's to many more.

Many thanks again,
Mary (Belch)

Many thanks for the lovely flowers I recently received. It was such a nice and unexpected surprise. They were very much appreciated.

With best wishes,
Ann Phillips

I would like to pass on my sincerest thanks to everyone for the kindness they have shown myself and my family following the sudden death of my wife Heather. Thank you to Raymond for the support he has shown our family and for the beautiful funeral service he conducted. Our family have felt extremely supported by the love, kindness and expressions of sympathy show to us during what is an extremely sad time in our lives.

Kindest Regards, Jim Park & family

King's Park Brass – Update

The band enjoyed it's November outing to Rutherglen Town Hall for "A Night at the Movies", and our Christmas carol concert sharing with the youth and junior bands, as well as the audience. At Christmas we were again out playing carols at local supermarkets and were delighted to make over £2700 from this crucial annual fundraising effort.

Our first concert in 2020 will be something special:-

To celebrate it's 90th Birthday, the church has invited the most successful competing band in Scotland, the Cooperation Band, to play a concert in the church on Saturday 21st March at 7.30pm. (Tickets - £10/£8 and £2 for children). King's Park Brass will be the special guests and will lead off on what will be a fantastic night of music making!

We look forward to seeing you!

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY...

An open meeting will be held in the church on Wednesday 19th February at 7pm to discuss the possibility of changing to a unitary constitution, where Kirk Session and Congregational Board become one group dealing with all matters.

A paper outlining the result of previous discussions will be available at all doors on Sundays 2nd and 9th February, showing how this change might work in covering all aspects of our church's life and work.

Please let us know if you would like a copy but are unable to pick one up in person.

*John and Eunice Black.
Session Clerks.*

SOCIAL & FUNDRAISING NEWS. . .

The Social and Fundraising committee had a very busy Christmas. Huge thanks to everyone who made the children's DVD afternoon, the Christmas Star Appeal and the Gifts for Jesus appeals so successful. A grand total of £887.44 was raised during the Star Appeal and gratefully received by Glasgow City Mission. We are now looking forward to hosting the Cooperation Brass Band Concert here in the Church at 7.30pm on Saturday 21st March and of course celebrating our 90th birthday throughout the year.

Further details of events will be in the magazine and intimations.

Lynda Young on behalf of the Social & Fundraising Committee

ATTESTATION OF ACCOUNTS

This meeting will take place on Wednesday 4th March at 8pm. The financial situation of King's Park Church must be of interest to all members of the congregation, ramifications discussed and debated as necessary. All trustees (Elders and Board Members) are invited to attend.

If you would like to share in supper at 7.00pm (price £5) before the start of business at 8pm, please let Carol Moore know before Sunday 1st March at the very latest (583 0708).

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

A reminder that the Annual General Meeting will take place as part of the morning service on Sunday 15th March when the financial affairs of the Church will be presented to the Congregation and Board Members can be appointed.

BUTTERCUPS

The Buttercups meet every Thursday evening from 6.15pm until 7.15pm. They are a wonderful, lively group of P1 & 2 girls who like to run around, play games and have fun with crafts. Unfortunately, we are struggling very much with leader help. It would be such a terrible shame to see this group close due to lack of support from our Church. If anyone, who has already been through the PVG scheme, could spare one hour, any Thursday night, between now and the end of the session in May, please contact Morag Montgomery (07955 217314) or Lynda Young (647 4447). If we have more helpers then you wouldn't even need to commit to every week! Please do have a think and let us know if you can help. We urgently need you!
